TEACHERS...

As man moves forward into an uncertain future the role of education becomes more and more critical. We try, as best we can, to prepare youth for a future which seems to move at a pace beyond our measure. As you leave the School of Performing Arts, you have at least the security of the talents which have been carefully nurtured by your teachers these past four years. You have been well prepared for a future in the arts.

Whether you decide to follow this path--for which you have been so carefully trained--or seek other fields and other directions in your immediate future, you can rest assured that your talent will be your constant companion.

I wish you every success in the years ahead.

RICHARD A. KLEIN
Principal

To the Graduating Class of 1969:

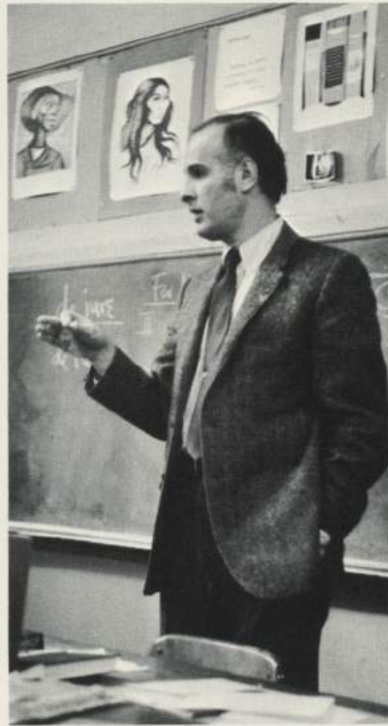

We hope that this yearbook will bring you many pleasant memories in the years to come. Seeing what your school, your friends and you were like in 1969 should renew the happiness that was yours at PA.

May your living hours be purposeful and filled with success in multiples of what you achieved within these halls.

Sincerely,

Edward T. Koehler
