JEN,
 I can tell people like me if you weren't made for school, but some how were out. SO LETS PARTY!
 Love, Peace, and all the mushy stuff
 Don't Dream it, Live it!
 Love Lawrence
 pssst.
 Shhhhh.

Dear Jen,
 You got that smile that kills!! I'm totally gonna miss the excellent times we had partying and SF. You were great! We have to KIT 923-6856!
 know I will see ya later!
 cool, sweet, & hot babe.
 Stay your dreams come true.
 Love,
 Christina

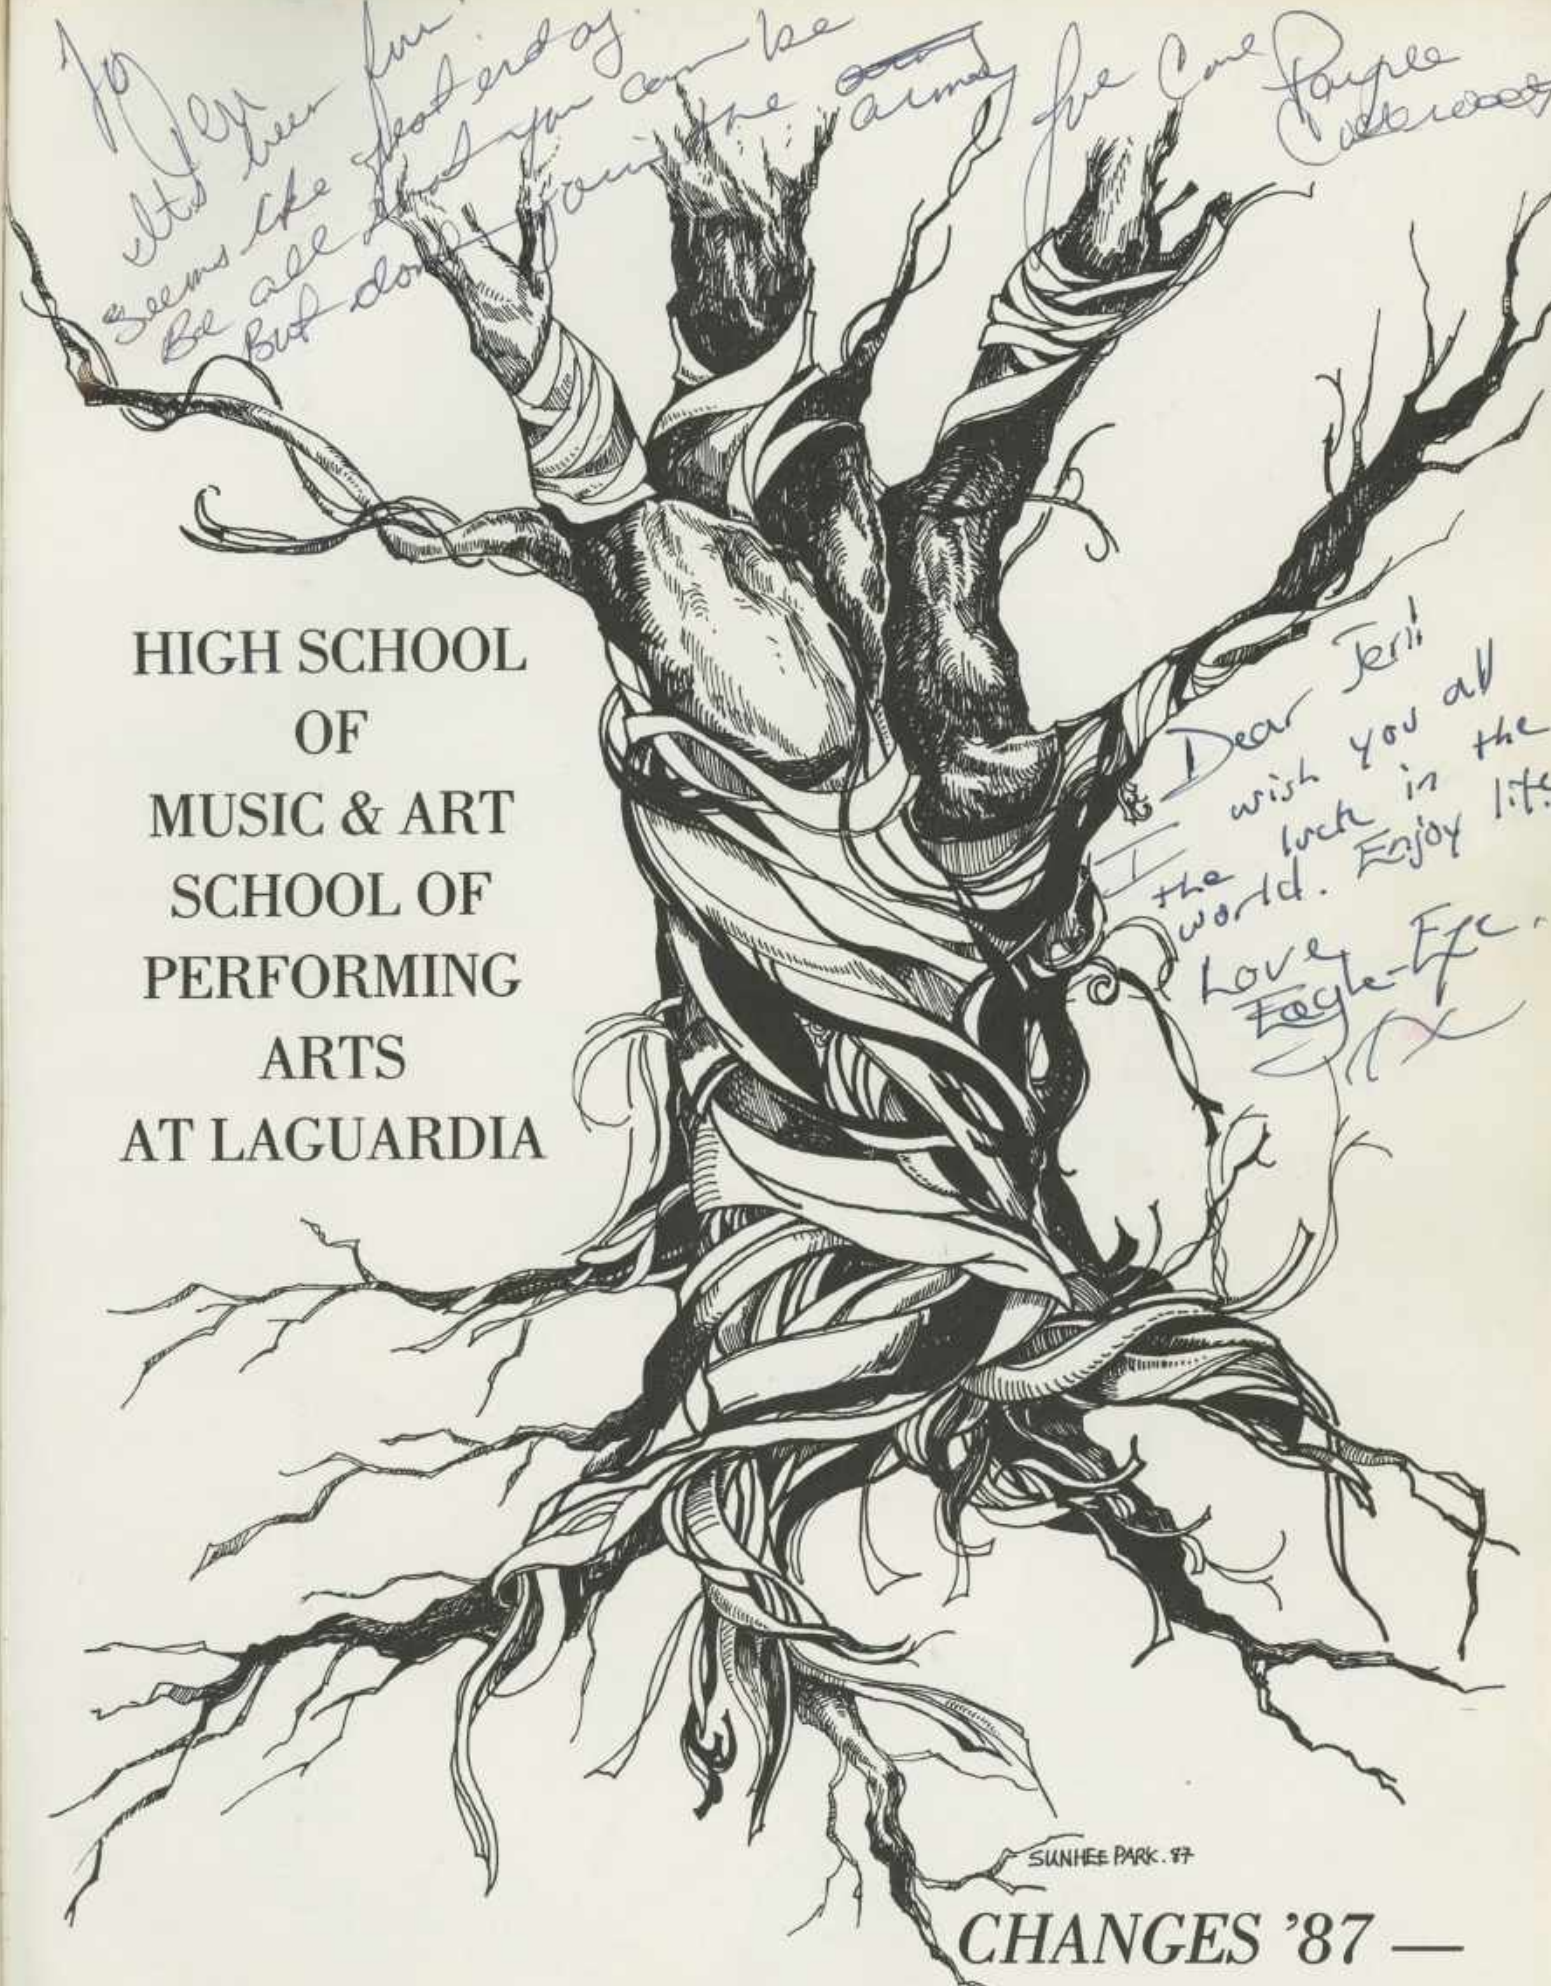

Jenifer
 So we've screamed, and fought and laughed and cried. It's been fun. you were a great Titania.
 I mean shit I'd be proud to protect you any time. Lots of love.
 a toast to future days.
 Cecil B.

Dearest Jen, (my Titania)
 So, we finally are out of this pit. I want you to know that I will always remember you. You were always very special to me
 even though I never got enough time to show it. Time goes by so fast. I remember you came with me to RAY BARRIS when no one else would.

you are a great
 person, a great friend,
 and a wonderful actress.
 Did I mention beautiful?
 I love you. Please keep in touch.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your class is a class of transition. Most of you began your high school careers in schools that were relatively small but had a large history and tradition. Mid-course, you were moved to a large, brand-new structure with

YEARBOOK MESSAGE

Three years ago I met with each of you in the conference room in our new building and we talked about our mutual concerns while sharing some punch and cookies. We have since overcome many obstacles and shared many happy experiences here in our new Lincoln Center home and now we are each going on to other pursuits.

I hope your experience has been a good one and that you will think fondly of your school and of those whose only goal was your preparation for the future.

I will remember you as the class whose members include those students with the last experience in the "old building" — as the class which shared the trials and tribulations of a new building not quite ready for our use when we arrived — and, of course, as the class which shares my farewell to this school after nineteen years as principal.

There is no school in the world equal to this one. We are both fortunate to have experienced all that it has to offer.

I wish you well.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Klein
Principal

no history or institutional "culture" of shared values, heroes, rituals of its own. You became the past, present and future of LaGuardia High School of Music and Arts.

Transition had to continue when construction promises fell by the wayside and dreams of a theater and concert hall faded into nightmares. You had to adjust to performing in auditoriums and rehearsal rooms, painting and dancing in poorly ventilated studios, short, making do.

The theme continued when, in the middle of your senior year, the principal who you knew for your high school career disappeared from the scene and a new face and presence appeared — yet another transition!

By all accounts, you acquitted yourselves nobly in spite of all travail. The school you leave is on the way to building its own traditions and history, created by your achievements. The building will finally be complete, albeit too late for you to enjoy. And, on a personal note, my gratitude to you for welcoming me into the "family" here goes without saying. You will always be my first graduating class.

As you make this first major transition from high school to post-secondary pursuits, I know you will be as successful as you have been in handling change in the past. You take with you the respect and admiration of your teachers, and my best wishes for the future. I hope you will remain, as alumni, active members of the LaGuardia extended family.

Ave Atque Vale.

Dandelion
Weed of my field
Your sunkissed petals
Colored my cheek,
As I, a child, Ran freely in your wind.

Wintertime came
And I made Angels in the Snow over you.

I heard your Whisper saying hello
When March arrived
The sun shone
so brightly and You turned your face up,
happy summer was here.

September shades
drew upon you
Coloring your friends
And saying Goodbye.

crown;
My Jupiter, my God.
Ghost am I,
leaning on you,
hearing your tale,

I wander lightly,
floating, caressing
that daisy

When the moon Sails Out

When the moon sails out....
Birds lose their wings and their songs become history

When the moon sails out....
Flowers grow no more Beauty is covered by a blanket

And the air is clear yet dark

When the moon sails out....
I see images of unknown faces
Faces that float in the air,
Following the light, following their destiny.....

When the moon sails out.

A DAY IN THE LIFE

There are good days and there are bad days in the La Guardia zone; an alternate dimension quite far from reality. You are about to experience a day in the life of the La Guardia zone

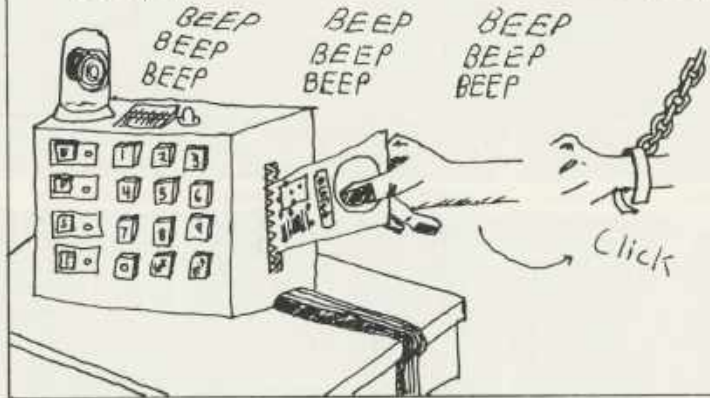

By Alexander Uptekov

Oh no! With a line like this I'll never get to class in time.

Ooops, I must have taken my old card.

You know very well that you can not use an old card. If you can't find the new one you will just have to pay me the $67 dollars for another one. And, if you don't come up with the money by tomorrow, we just won't let you in school. Then you will be suspended for playing hooky. In the meantime I'm confiscating your old card.

Emotions must not override better judgement. We must always deal with reality. Fantasy can be a temporary Alleviation from reality, but there is a necessity to maintain control. If there is not a clear distinction between these two, then one is capable of living a lie. Living a lie brings forth deception which may then conclude to intolerable anguish.

Words of wisdom from Tajuana Sharnell Bligen Grant.

I thank you mom for all your loving support. I love you.

Jen,
you, you were my first. what can I say. We've been through so much together, everything starts flooding back.
all the shit that we've pulled, I can't even start. It seems like last week I swear. All I can say is that we have a date at the center of universe sometime soon. I love you baby, and through all the shit, I only love you more. Let's please make a date to look through some old

Hi,
You know, we never talked about this but it was wierd the way we just started
sitting in the halls,
im not sure how it started but (and i know this sounds dumb), im glad it did.

Dear Jenifer
So this is it,
Wow I cant beleive its over, I think about 5 years from now, Im going to miss these times so much, I hope you have a great summer
and keep in touch (496-8582)
So I wont say goodbye because your going to keep in touch
right? talk to you soon

P.S. Here I am again, Im just writing to say (to remind you) that ~~that~~ OK... that ~~was~~ Great is profound.
Though nobody knows it, except you now.

Love
Michael
