TO THE GRADUATES

When you were selected for admission to this school it was on the basis of your potential in one area of the arts. We offered you training in that discipline and added the necessary academic background in order to enable you to compete successfully for whatever further training or education you may desire.

You now join the thousands of your predecessors who proudly call themselves graduates of the School of Performing Arts as you move off to seek the richness of life's offerings nurtured by strengths we hope you have been able to develop during your stay with us.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my share of this process, of growth and development and I know that I speak for the entire faculty as I wish you every good fortune in the years ahead.

Richard A. Klein

Your stay here for 3-4 years has been short, yet your Performing Arts years have played an important part in your total development. I hope that your future will be enriched by your P.A. friendships, learnings and experiences, as your presence has enriched us.

P.A. Seniors

Four years have gone so quickly by.
It seemed like such a heart-ache.
Of dancers pulling muscles,
And actors acting their hardest,
Of music students practicing
Until the tune was right.
So we all as one can be,
The best there is in sight!

THE
WE WERE!

THE YEARS ARE GONE

Now the time has finally come for us to say good-bye.
We save the sweet old memories
we carry deep inside.

Into the world we all must journey,
To find our highest fame.
So that everyday we can proudly say,
"I went to P.A."

We shed our tears of happiness
in saying that it was,
four years of sad and merry times.
The best there ever was!

TOMORROW

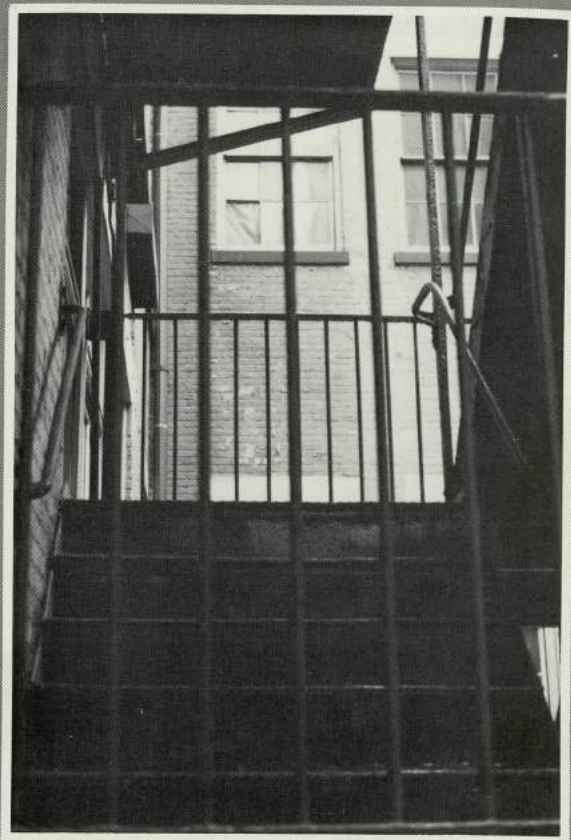

Tomorrow could mean,
A long highway stretching into the sunset.
Tomorrow could mean,
Some wonderful greatness for me and you.
Tomorrow can be a great time for us all.
Look to your glistening horizons, our past is almost gone.
(We've almost gone, almost left;
There's not much more time in this cozy corner.)
Tomorrow is a golden time that lives today,
In all our hearts.
Tomorrow's almost here. Tomorrow is a magic time.

-Alex Carney-

... We wanderers, ever seeking the lonlier way, begin no day where we have ended another day; and no sunrise finds where sunset left us ...

-Kahlil Gibran-

... And let today embrace the past with remembrance and the future with longing ...
